EDIFY ONE ANOTHER THROUGH HIS WORD

Sermon Title: Learning the Secret of Contentment

Sermon Date: 9 February 2025

Reference Text: Phi 4: 11-13

Speaker: Elder James Lee

SERMON RECAP

1. The bible teaches that the true path to happiness is to learn the secret of contentment. In Phi 4:11, the Apostle Paul proclaims that he has learned to be content, whether in poverty, prosperity or whatever circumstance.
2. True contentment is learning to be satisfied in God alone. It is a learned discipleship virtue. It is a heart posture which every disciple of Christ must learn to develop.
3. True contentment is not dependent on our circumstances. It is not merely a coping mechanism. It is not an excuse for laziness. True contentment is not dependent on our personalities.
4. In our abundance, true contentment guards our hearts against materialism, pride and greed. In our lack, true contentment guards our hearts against despair, anger and bitterness.

SHARING

1. Have we learned the secret of contentment as spoken by the Apostle Paul, in every circumstance? Why or why not?
2. Share with the cell one thing in your life you are not content with. What concrete steps will you take to help yourself overcome it?
3. Have we fully surrendered to the Lord our lives in all things? Do we trust God to be our provider and Lord in every area of our lives, in both the good and in the bad?

PRAYER

1. Pray for one another in this area of contentment. Pray that we will all grow in this area of contentment, trust and security in the Lord.
2. Pray that we will not be overwhelmed by our circumstances, but pray that we will develop a heart posture of being satisfied in God alone.
