EDIFY ONE ANOTHER THROUGH HIS WORD

Sermon Title: The Specialty of Heaven

Sermon Date: 15 Sep 2024

Reference Text: 1 Cor 1:26-31, Judges 6:11-16, 1 Sam 16:3-12, Phil 3:4-10

Speaker: Reverend Derek Hong

SERMON RECAP

- Rev Derek used the stories of 3 bible characters (Gideon, David & Paul) to communicate that God can turn what is ordinary and rejected to become extraordinary.
- Gideon was from a weak clan, the smallest tribe (Manasseh), the least in the family and very scared, but God called him a "Mighty Warrior" (Judges 6:11-16).
- God doesn't see you as you are now, He sees you as He designed and destined you to be.
- David was the youngest, forgotten by his father, assigned to look after sheep, despised by his brother and could be an illegitimate child. But God chose him as king (1 Sam 16:3-12).
- Paul was extremely religious, well-educated, self-righteous and persecuted the Church. But God called, disciplined and used him (Phil 3:4-10). Paul considered his status and achievements as "worthless" when compared to knowing Jesus.
- Don't underestimate your value to God just because you don't seem to measure up to the world's great and significant.

SHARING

- What do you feel about God's way of choosing the "foolish" and "weak" things of the world to accomplish His purposes? Do you agree with Him?
- Are you in a season where you question your life's purpose or worth?
- How can 1 Cor 1:26-31 encourage us as a church to be more welcoming to those who feel insignificant, forgotten or weak in the eyes of society?

PRAY:

- For new converts and rededications during the recent Mid-Autumn Carnival to grow in their relationship with God.
- For pre-believers who came to receive salvation.
